Lapses on the part of the Government in issue of Ordinances

SRI M.S. KRISHNAN (Malleswaram)—Before we go to the Legislative business, I would like to bring to your kind notice that there have been a spate of Ordinances brought into force and we are now supposed to have all these Ordinances in the form of Bills. Of course, the Government has got a right to bring in Ordinances. But, I should say that they have not applied their minds at all in some cases. There is an ordinance in the name of the Hon'ble Minister Sri H. M. Channabasappa. In that Ordinance it is stated that it will come into force on a specified date. I should say it is no Ordinance at all. Sri Channabasappa is a person who goes very deep into matters and supported to take appropriate action at the appropriate time. In this case, no proper action has been taken by him. I know in the Bill it is mentioned as from 4th November. But, unfortunately in the Ordinance it has not been mentioned. This omission speaks of the efficiency of Law Department, Hon'ble Minister for Law, and also the Hon'ble Minister Sri H. M. Channabasappa.
